THE POSITION

The Crow School District seeks outstanding, highly qualified candidates for a high school Social Studies teaching position.

POSITION SUMMARY

Instructs classes in social studies so that students understand and apply knowledge and reasoning skills to the examination of social issues. This teacher will be responsible for providing a positive learning environment that promotes a high level of achievement for all students while considering the background and developmental level of the individual student.

SKILLS AND QUALIFICATIONS

- Uses a variety of teaching strategies appropriate to the teaching of facts, concepts, and generalizations.
- Designs or selects and uses planned sequences of instruction to develop student understanding of factual background material, social studies, concepts, and generalizations, as well as critical reasoning and discussion skills.
- Establishes and maintains an orderly and supportive classroom where students show respect for one another and the teacher and are free to develop a questioning attitude.
- Conducts classroom discussions which proceed with direction and encourages students to examine and draw conclusions and make value judgments based on scientific methods of inquiry.
- Uses various questioning techniques which lead students to higher levels of thinking, including analyzing, synthesizing, hypothesizing, and the testing of hypotheses and value judgments.
- Maintains an atmosphere of intellectual integrity by encouraging the consideration of differing points of view in treating various topics and issues.
- Develops an understanding of the contribution of ethnic groups to American culture.
- Maximizes time when students are paying attention and working on tasks directly related to the subject matter.
- Makes sure students understand what they are supposed to do before undertaking assignments.
- Assesses, keeps track of, and provides feedback promptly and often to students on their progress and assignments.
- Identifies, diagnoses, and prescribes remediation for problems in understanding and applying concepts and generalizations.
- Matches activities and materials to individual and group skills and needs.
- Ensures that instructional activities and materials are clearly related to state, district, school, and department goals and objectives.
- Uses a district approved grading system that is consistent, fair, and supportable.
- Provides instruction, utilizing the course of study and textbooks adopted by the District Board of Education.
- Ensures that material and equipment are properly used, maintained and stored, and that inventory records, when requested, are accurate and current.
- Supervises students in out-of-classroom activities as assigned.
- Participates cooperatively on school, area, and district-wide activities.
- Follows specified standards, policies, and procedures of the building and district.
- Performs other related duties as assigned by the principal and/or superintendent.
